

Abstract Submission

Abstracts are invited to be submitted online from Wednesday 5 May to Monday 5 July 2021 for:

- ASCIA 2021 Conference Posters – displayed online for viewing at any time during the event. Some posters will be selected for oral presentations in concurrent sessions which will be held each day.
- ASCIA 2021 Conference Clinical Grand Rounds (CGR) oral presentations – for immunology/allergy advanced trainees only, to be presented on Friday 3rd September 2021.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DETAILS

- Only abstracts submitted to ICMSA by 5 July 2021 as Microsoft word documents (no pdfs), using the template on the ASCIA 2021 website (200 to 300 words) will be reviewed by the committee.
- Authors will be notified by ASCIA of abstract acceptance by early August 2021. To be accepted, abstract authors must be registered for the ASCIA 2021 Conference by 5 July 2021. Abstracts will not be accepted without results being included.
- All author(s) must approve of submitting this work for presentation, and at least one author needs to be available to present if selected by the ASCIA 2021 Committee. Authors need to notify the ASCIA 2021 Secretariat if they are unable to present or if the presenting author is changed.
- Abstract titles should be short (up to 25 words) and must not contain abbreviations. Abstracts should be thoroughly checked for spelling and grammar before they are submitted online.
- Abstracts can contain standard abbreviations (spelled out on first use), tables, pictures and diagrams.
- Abstracts should not include symbols (e.g. arrows, Greek symbols) nor languages other than English, nor photographs.

ACCEPTANCE OF ABSTRACTS

- Acceptance of poster and CGR abstracts will be confirmed by early-August 2021.
 - Poster pdfs can be in portrait or landscape format, and are required by mid-August 2021, to be uploaded to the ASCIA 2021 Conference website.
 - All accepted poster and CGR abstracts (that are not published elsewhere), will be published in an online journal by early-October 2021.
 - To be eligible for publication in an online journal, poster and CGR abstracts should be original work, not previously published or presented at another meeting.
 - If an author does not wish to have their abstract published they should advise this when they submit the abstract.
 - Poster and CGR awards will be presented at the end of the ASCIA 2021 Conference, immediately after the closing address.
